Judge Ingram Decides He is Entitled to Seat in emolument for any period prior to the filing of the same."

It will be seen from a reading of this section that there is no forfeiture imposed in case the statement and oath is not filed within thirty days after the election, save only until the statement and eath is filed, as provided for, the person shall not entry upon the discharge of the duties of the office, nor shall he receive any salary or any encolument for any period prior to the filing of the same.

the same.

Again, the only forfeiture contained in the act is found in the provisions of section 5 of the act, which, by its express terms, is applicable only to the case of a contest.

There is no contest here, Harton H. Grundy was duly elected to the office of Alderman for Henry Ward at the general election held in this city on the 14th of June, 1994, and on the 18th of June, 1994, the Board of Commissioners met in the clerk's office of Commissioners met in the clerk's office of Commissioners out of the city of Richmond and proceeded to open the several returns the election, and ascertained from said the election, and ascertained from said election for the office of Alderman from Henry Ward, that the result spectral may be a decision for the office of Alderman from Henry Ward, that the result spectral med was reduced to writing and signed by a majority of the complisions present constituting such board of the Husings Court, and as such ex-officio clerk of said beard, and was annead to the abstract of votes cast at said election as rethe only forfeiture contained in the id board, and was annexed to the votes cast at said election as re-clerk of said reach, and a said election as required by law.

And Barton H. Grundy has duly made, subscribed, sworn to and filled with the clerk of the Hussings Court of the early of Richmond a statement and onth as required by said act of March 2, 1965, whom said statement and oath were made, swellfield and filed by said Grundy as prevoked for in said set, but not within theiry days after said effection.

The integrity of the ant in question—a most wholesome law—and within oan but be productive of great mod as the Commonwealth, is presented and suffering within the forfetture of office and punitative other than the forfetture of office in mot filing within the forfetture of office in mutifiling within the forfetture of office for mutifiling within the forfetture of only on the mutifility of the mutifility of the form several of the act.

And by the second section of the art, any person who shall expend, pay, promise, loan or become permitary minths in any way for any money or other whichle thing in behalf of any candidate for office at any election, primary or positivating convention held in this Commonwealth is made liable to the same punishment by way of line and imsame punishment by way of line and im-same punishment by way of fine and imprisonment.

And, in addition, section 5 of the act provides that "any person failing to comply with the above providents facting reference to section 5) by failing, in file said statement and oath in the manner and form above presented (i.e., in section 5), shall be litable to a fine not exceeding $5,600, to be recovered in the manner provided in the section. And in addition to these punishments imposed by the act for the violation of its several provisions, there is the express provision of section 6 above alluded to, that "no person shall enter upon the duties of any elective office until he shall have flied the statement, oath and duplicate provided for in this act; nor shall he receive any salary or any emotument for any period prior to the filing of the Web.

shall be receive any salary or any emolumont for any period prior to the filing of the
With the several sections of the act before our minds, the question holled down is whether a candidate, duly and truly elected, who has violated none of the provisions of the act in question, either in letter or spirit, and who has made, verified and filed the sistement and cent required by the sature, but not within thirty days, is entitled, notwithstanding that omission, to the issuance of a certificate of election to him by the proper officer or board.

The law does not favor forfeitures. The law does not favor forfeitures. The title to the office is derived from the election by the voters. And whereas it is emirely within the province of the Legislature to declare that the omission to file the statemont and cath shall forfeit and vacate the office to which the party was elected, there and all an caprised or declared intention to the language use of the legislature, at least, must clearly indicastical ending a fair construction othe language use of the certificate of election to the duly elected person unless the statement and cath was intended to prevent the issuance of the certificate of election to the duly elected person unless the statement was made, verified and filed within thirty days after the election.

For the reasons above stated, I do not beleve that this was the intention of the Legilature upon a fair construction of the lapguage used, when the whole act and the several sections of the same are considered together.

FOUR GIRLS ADRIFT IN FOG ALL NIGHT

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOSTON, MASS, August 5.—Four Marbiehead girls were picked up in their saling dory, the Loon, off South Breakers, on the Marbiehead coast, early yesterday morning, after being adrift in the fog since Wednesday afternoon. They had anchored off the breakers in despair, after trying valuly to set a course for home.

after trying vainly to set a course for home.

The four girls are the Misses Grace, Harriet and Edith Wainwright, daughters of C. D. Wainwright, and a Miss Carey, who is living at the Wainwright cottage in Marbichead. All are expert yachtswomen and had entered their boat in the day class for the Corinthian Yacht Club's midsummer races. A dense fog set in soon after the races started. At the finish the Loon was not to be found. When the dory did not come in by nightfall ain alarm bell was rung from Abbott Hall, in Marbichead, and boats put out in search. At 2 o'clock this morning Mr. Brackett, of the Rockmere, skirting the south breakers in his launch, found the four girls, who were not at all frightened by their experience.

received what was supposed to be a mortal wound, being shot through the body, the builet penetrating the bowels, and his recovery was a source of marvel to all of the surgeons of that day. He was captured by the Federal troops and remained thirteen months in prison. The wound never healed, and up to the day of his death remained open, necessitating the utmost care upon his part.
It is said that but few men have survived such a wound, and whilst in prison, Mr. Martin was constantly visited by the Federal surgeons, and was caused no little trouble by their anxiety to examine him.
